

YUKON DREAMS

There are strange things done 'neath the midnight sun,
and the people from "Air North" will share.
They'll whisk you to sights like the northern lights
from a town that's named for a bear.

Like an ancient dream, their flying machine
will take you to the past.
To the Klondike rush and the endless hush
of a land so storied and vast.

It's not just the land, do you understand
just what I'm trying to say?
It's a place of stories, of struggles, and glories,
where greenhorns and Gwitchin hold sway.

The land of Air North will beckon you forth,
like Service, and Burton, and Jack.
It's a place that is vast, with ghosts from the past
that calls you to hurry on back.

*So fly to the Yukon you southern town,
just maybe you'll see Sam McGee,
or Skookum Jim and Tagish Charlie,
or maybe just plain folk like me!*
